Paid Internship Summer 2014

PENNSTATE 1855

THE AMERICAN CHESTNUT FOUNDATION

Internship duties will include:

- assisting in pollination and inoculation activities around the state of PA, with a focus on activities around Penn State University
- evaluation of trees planted at current chestnut orchards
- scouting for wild American chestnut tree locations

Requirements:

- Extensive travel will be involved, candidate must have own vehicle and current driver's license.
- Some training in forest dendrology/ taxonomy
- Be able to work well with many types of people
- Somewhat computer savvy.

- $4500 for 3 months of work
- Travel allowances

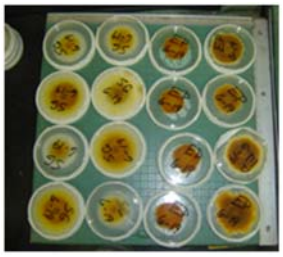
To apply, send cover letter, resume, and three references to:

Sara Fitzsimmons
E-mail: sff3@psu.edu

LEARN ABOUT:

- Plant pathology
- Microbiology
- Quantitative Genetics
- Horticulture
- Silviculture
- Species and germplasm Conservation
- Non-profit management


AND MUCH MORE!